3 Liverpool Road

Kingston Upon Thames | | KT2 7SX

An exciting opportunity to create a substantial and highly individual family home, with private garden, private garaging for one car, two off street car parking spaces and views towards Richmond Park.

This well-proportioned three-bedroom freehold house offers generous existing accommodation together with significant potential for enlargement and refurbishment.

The ground floor comprises a double-length reception room, dining space with open-plan kitchen plus utility room and guest cloakroom, while the first floor provides three bedrooms and two bathrooms. Outside, the property benefits from off-street parking for two cars and a private garden with partial views towards Richmond Park.

There is considerable scope to extend at ground and first-floor level, Taking advantage of a consented planning permission under appeal (Ref 21/01527/Full ) adding an additional 258 sqft creating an impressive bespoke family residence.

The property has experienced subsidence, and the owners have drawings and costings for the proposed remedial works. This is therefore an opportunity particularly suited to a purchaser prepared to undertake the necessary structural works and subsequent refurbishment, with the potential to transform the house into a wonderful family home.

With its combination of space, parking, Garage, garden and significant scope for extension, this house offers a rare opportunity to create a home tailored entirely to the purchaser's vision.
