Newnham on Severn is a village located in the Forest of Dean district of Gloucestershire and is known for its scenic riverside location and its rich history. The village offers beautiful views of the River Severn, and its proximity to the waterway provides opportunities for activities such as boating, fishing, and enjoying the tranquil riverside atmosphere.

The village has a long history dating back to medieval times, and it still retains much of its traditional character. The 13th-century church of St. Peter is a notable landmark in Newnham on Severn, showcasing architectural features from different periods.

Newnham on Severn provides a range of amenities and services for its residents. These include local shops, pubs, a primary school, a village hall, and a post office. The village hosts various events throughout the year, including festivals, fairs, and community gatherings.

The surrounding countryside offers opportunities for outdoor exploration and leisure activities. The nearby Forest of Dean and Wye Valley are easily accessible and provide walking trails, cycling routes, and opportunities to immerse oneself in nature.
