Baconsthorpe

TRANQUIL LANDSCAPES CLOSE TO CENTURIES OF RICH HISTORY

The village of Baconsthorpe is surrounded by unspoilt countryside, situated approximately four miles east of Holt and a short distance from the North Norfolk coast. It is one of the few places in the county where a census before 1841 containing names survives. It is here that the ruins of Baconsthorpe Castle can be found, which date back to the early 15th century.

Holt is one of the most attractive small towns in Norfolk with the main street lined with colour-washed Georgian buildings, many of architectural importance. There are tea and coffee shops, lots of antique and curio shops, food shops and delicatessens, banks, independent shops and, of course, historic Gresham's School founded in 1555.

The cathedral city of Norwich is just twenty-six miles distant. From Norwich there are direct trains to London Liverpool Street and Norwich Airport is a convenient worldwide gateway via Schiphol Airport.
