- 3/4 bedroom semi detached cottage
- Popular village location
- Modern features throughout the home
- Viewing recommended
- Large extensions to both side and rear
- Character and charm
- Driveway parking and gardens
- No onward chain

This much improved and substantially extended 3/4 bedroom semi detached cottage sits in a tucked away position in this popular South Shropshire village, enjoying driveway parking and enclosed gardens. Accommodation mixing a blend of character features and modern creature comforts, extends to 1500 square feet and offers comfortable but versatile space for either a family or somebody retiring into the area. Viewing highly recommended and no onward chain.

Accommodation

The property is approached into a porch which in turn leads into an open plan kitchen dining room. There are period features to include fireplace, flagstone flooring, timber ceiling and exposed timber features as a room divider. The kitchen is comprehensively fitted with a matching range of units with grey fronts and oak worksurface, integrated electric hob, cooker, extractor, fridge freezer and dishwasher. Windows to both front and rear and a cloakroom having oak engineered floor and a suite in white.

The rear extension provides a fantastic living room with double doors, single door and three windows overlooking the rear garden, with engineered oak floor. There is then a study/bedroom with windows to frontage.

The first floor landing with a lovely large roof window, has two good size storage cupboards and gives access to 3 double bedrooms, the main bedroom having an exposed stonewall, exposed floorboards and access to eave storage. There is a luxurious ensuite having a freestanding scroll edge bath with claw feet, and a WC and wash hand basin. The other two bedrooms are then serviced by a large shower room, again with a modern suite of double shower cubicle, wash hand basin and vanity cupboard with sink.

Location

Tucked away off a lane and sitting in this well sought after village of Clungunford, with facilities that include a village hall with pub nights, church and an active community. The larger village of Leintwardine is approximately 3 miles in distance and has a good range of facilities, whilst the town of Craven Arms is a short drive and there's a large range of facilities and a mainline railway station.

Outside

The property sits in a tucked away location off the main road in this popular South Shropshire village and is accessed onto a gravel driveway providing parking with brick edged borders, small lawn, shrubs and mature hedging. A pathway leads to the side of the property into the rear garden, which has been recently landscaped to include a flagstone paved seating area at the rear of the house and steps that lead up onto a lawned garden.

Agent Note

A small section of the Properties land carries a footpath, but this is fenced off to protect privacy.
