WHAT OUR VENDORS SAY

It's truly been a pleasure calling this our home for the last 18 years. We moved in when our sons were in secondary school, and even now they both love coming back. Our house is only 5 minutes from Baildon train station, so it's easy to nip into Ilkley or Leeds; we've also been able to commute to London as there's a direct train from Shipley to Kings Cross. We're in a fantastic location for walks, close to Baildon Moor and Shipley Glen. Leeds-Liverpool canal is only a few minutes walk away, which we use all the time to wander down to Saltaire on a weekend.

The house itself has been wonderful, we jokingly refer to it as 'The Tardis' because the inside is so unexpected. It has a unique layout which feels open plan but you have the luxury of closing off the rooms when you want more privacy. We can be watching different things and there's no noise disruption since we're at opposite ends of the house. It's also a lovely house for festivities, we've had many special Christmas and Easter celebrations here. You can fit an impressive Christmas tree in the hallway, and there are plenty of hiding places for Easter egg hunts.

Entertaining is a joy here, in summer we have all the patio doors open, records playing and dozens of guests freely meandering around. We're keen gardeners so being south facing was perfect for us, the garden is a sun-trap and we're lucky not to be overlooked. The patios on either side of the conservatory are set up so we can have a morning coffee on one side and enjoy an evening drink on the other. Our position means it's safe for kids and pets to run around too as there's no nearby traffic.

Visitors often comment on how calming the house feels. There's just a special feeling about this house, we felt it on our first viewing. We feel truly grateful to have had the opportunity to live in such an idyllic spot. We hope the next owners are as happy here as we have been.
