28 Cyprus Street, Whitehall, Darwen

£220,000 Chain Free!

A superb period mid-terraced property offering generous family sized living accommodation along with original features. The accommodation briefly comprises: Entrance vestibule with feature-stained glass, hall with original spindled balustrade, sitting room with bay window, living room/dining room, separate fitted kitchen, first floor, three bedrooms, one with a bay window and all with fitted furniture, and a family shower room. The first-floor landing also gives access via a staircase to a large attic room. The property has been lovingly maintained; however it is a little dated in places, in our opinion this is reflected in the realistic asking price. Benefits from PVC double-glazed windows where stated and gas central heating. Externally there is a paved garden area to the front and rear garden with 'astro' turf for easy maintenance. Easy access to Whitehall Park, moorland trails, and A666 Bolton Road. Viewing is essential for buyers looking for a generous size family home with lots of potential.
