THE PROPERTY

The Delapre Estate comprises of just five properties set in extensive gardens and grounds. Delapre House is understood to date back to circa 1795 and was originally built as Bridport Barracks. After Napoleon's defeat at Waterloo in 1815, the government then sold the barracks and it was renamed Delapre.

Courtyard Cottage is a distinctive character detached cottage which was subject to extensive enlargement and alterations about 25 years ago, to provide a spacious, highly individual, single storey character home. The property is Grade II Listed, of architectural or historic importance. Under the current ownership since 2012, a whole number of further improvements/upgrading has been carried out.

The excellent amenities include gas-fired central heating with upgraded boiler, well equipped kitchen with contemporary units and quality appliances (Siemens single and double gas hob , oven/microwave, griddle /BBQ, and extractor fan, Bosch fridge/ freezer and Miele dishwasher) , attractive bathroom/shower room fittings , contemporary free standing Davre wood burner and solid oak flooring throughout the property.

The spacious accommodation is well maintained and the timber windows were externally redecorated just last year.

The hub , unique and stunning feature of the property is the large open plan living/dining room/ kitchen with its high vaulted 12' high beamed ceiling plus additional skylights providing a sense of light and space.

The accommodation – Principal bedroom with en-suite shower room, two further bedrooms, study/bedroom 4, bathroom, sunny open plan living room/dining room/kitchen.

Courtyard Cottage enjoys great privacy with its own front courtyard/parking area and a well stocked rear garden facing west. The property also owns part of the front paddock, which is open plan.

Courtyard Cottage is very much a one-off, in terms of its type and very special location. Viewing is highly recommended by the sole agents, Stags.

OUTSIDE

Courtyard Cottage is approached through high double wooden gates onto a large its own courtyard providing parking and outside space and enjoying a sunny south-facing sheltered and private aspect. Side pedestrian access and gate. The lovely private west-facing walled rear garden is attractively laid out with a large level area of lawn, brick edged flower and shrub beds, adjoining paved terrace with timber store, two sheds and timber log store.

The property also owns a separate area of lawned garden just opposite the entrance gates.
