Rhyd Ddolegob

Llanfallteg, Whitland

A stunning 3 bedroom detached cottage offering fully renovated and modernised accommodation, situated in a good size plot with ample off road car parking and a generous garden. The property is situated approximately 5 miles from Narberth town, in the popular village of Llanfallteg and within walking distance to the village pub, being set at the end of a private shared driveway. This stunning property has been designed and finished to an exceptionally high standard, providing a modern and stylish interior with up to date fixtures and fittings, which altogether makes a truly wonderful home of relative low-maintenance. The property already enjoys a very pleasant good sized garden with country view, but there is also the option to purchase more garden/grounds by separate negotiation. Viewing of this fantastic property is simply a must to fully appreciate all its fine qualities.
