A huge selling point for any prospective buyer, the current owner has purchased the freehold, meaning this fantastic three-bedroom mid-row home is being sold freehold with no leasehold worries! Boasting stunning river views, an en-bloc garage, newly installed Worcester boiler and upgraded uPVC double glazing, this delightfully-presented dwelling would be a superb place to call home. Sitting proud in a great location between New Brighton and Liscard, providing an array of amenities including local shops, public transport, great schooling and commuter links; not forgetting those walks along the promenade. Interior: hallway, living/dining room and breakfast kitchen on the ground floor. Off the first-floor landing there are the three bedrooms and a shower room. Exterior: private rear garden with paved patio and lawn, together with a lawned front garden, parking areas and garage. A real must see!
