Barnet Gate Lane, EN5

£15,000 Per calendar month

An outstanding six-bedroom contemporary residence, recently constructed to an impressive specification and offering extensive accommodation across three levels. Each of the six bedrooms features its own private bathroom, complemented by a guest WC on the ground floor. The property centres around a magnificent kitchen and reception space, complete with premium integrated appliances, bespoke units and a substantial island, alongside a separate fully equipped secondary kitchen. Additional highlights include an architectural glass-sided staircase, stylish interior finishes, underfloor heating and climate control throughout, together with a secluded rear garden featuring a generous terrace and landscaped lawn.

For commuters, the location offers convenient connections into Central London and beyond, with High Barnet Underground Station providing Northern Line services and Mill Hill Broadway offering Thameslink rail connections. Motorists are equally well catered for, with the A1, M1 and M25 all within easy reach, providing straightforward access across London and the surrounding counties.
