Boasting many original features, this characterful semi detached BARN CONVERSIONS offers ample living accommodation, all set within an approximately 4.81-acre plot. The main living area of the property is situated on the first floor, boasting vaulted ceilings, exposed stone walls, and rustic ceiling beams. This area comprises a generously sized living room, a spacious dining kitchen with captivating views of the surrounding fields, and a dining room. Completing the first floor are two double bedrooms and a convenient shower room. The ground floor features a welcoming entrance hall, leading to the primary bedroom with its own ensuite, three additional bedrooms (one of which features an ensuite), a family bathroom, utility room, and a generously proportioned games room. Outside, the property is surrounded by enclosed gardens to the side and rear, while a sizable double garage offers potential for conversion with two rooms above. The adjoining land encompasses four paddocks equipped with stables and additional outbuildings.
