Unique to the rental market is this very impressive, three bedroom detached house that is spacious, offers a great garden and a great standard of finish! Located in Doe, Close, Penylan and tucked in a quiet corner of the development, the property offers open-plan lounge / kitchen downstairs with lovely parquet flooring laid throughout and modern kitchen with excellent worktop space and integrated appliances. A large storage cupboard is also located downstairs along with access to the garden. Upstairs are three double bedrooms, the largest of which are positioned at the front, one bedroom with walk-in wardrobe, one with fitted wardrobe space. A small study is also located upstairs, complete with shower room. A family bathroom completes the property upstairs with bathtub and shower over. Perfect for a family the property is located in a very desirable area and comes with a quite superb garden that wraps around the property. Parking is also available, off-road. Please note the garages shown in the picture are not included with this property.
