The Hollies
Throwleigh, Devon EX20 2HU

£599,950 Freehold

The Property

The Hollies is presented in superb condition having been subject to a total refurbishment. It sits in 0.32 acres of garden and orchard and has parking for two cars and a large single garage. This detached home has an entrance hall, a smart new kitchen and adjoining utility room, a bright sitting and dining room with wood burning stove, a third bedroom/study, a principle bedroom with new ensuite shower wet room, a second generous double bedroom and a newly fitted bathroom with both bath and shower. The bungalow has new double glazing and a new propane gas fired central heating boiler. The garden is well laid out and lovingly tended with an orchard and a large lawn, mature shrubs and bushes, a paved patio and views to the nearby open moor. Fowlers strongly recommend viewing this immaculate home.

Situation

Located about 3 miles from Chagford, Throwleigh is a picturesque Dartmoor village with a pretty Parish church, a chapel, a vibrant village community, a village hall, nearby pub and easy access on foot to the open moor. School bus services access primary education in Chagford and senior schooling in Okehampton. The Hollies is located on a quiet country lane closer to the church with walking access to the open moor at Shilstone Tor and Clannaborough, making a lovely circular walk lasting about an hour. The A30 dual carriageway is about 3 miles away at Whiddon Down and Okehampton is only about 5 miles.

Exterior

Front garden

A private garden set behind a mature hedgerow and with a driveway for two cars and access to the garage. It is mainly laid to grass with mature borders and flower shrubs and perennials and a trellis screen with climbers that neatly screens the Propane gas storage tank and a small coal bunker. Pathways lead either side of the house and on the west side there is a timber garden shed and small greenhouse.

Rear garden

Across the immediate rear of the residence there is a part gravelled but mainly stone terrace with granite retaining walls and two sets of granite steps up to the lawn. The garden is well positioned to enjoy sunshine all day with some shady spots for respite from the sun and great views to the high moor above Clannaborough and toward Cawsand Beacon. The garden is well tended and planted with mature shrubs and bushes, an apple tree in the main garden and there are some well tended and shapely conifers too. Set into the lawn is a small granite bounded pond and there is an exterior tap. A trellis separates the main garden from the orchard where there are apple and plum trees.

Garage

A generous block built single garage with an electric roller shutter door, power and light and a pedestrian door set into the side wall.
