A spacious porch opens into a light filled living room, where a charming box bay window brings in warm afternoon sunshine. The room's generous proportions and cleverly utilised study nook create a versatile space for family life. A wide opening leads into the dining room, an inviting area with warm wooden flooring and excellent natural light from the adjoining conservatory. With panoramic garden views and year round usability, the conservatory extends the living space beautifully and provides effortless access to the garden through French doors. The kitchen has been stylishly reimagined with sleek grey cabinetry, quartz worktops, integrated appliances, and a central island that enhances both storage and functionality. A utility room and ground floor cloakroom sit beyond, offering exciting potential for personalisation.

Upstairs, a spacious landing leads to four well proportioned bedrooms. Two doubles provide generous space and natural light, while two singles are ideal for children, guests, or home working. The family bathroom has been transformed into a luxurious retreat, complete with a freestanding bathtub, walk in shower, and contemporary finishes.

Outside, the rear garden is a peaceful haven with a blend of patio areas, lawn, raised beds, and mature hedging that creates privacy and tranquility. A shed and side access add practicality. To the front, a large driveway accommodates multiple vehicles, complemented by a single garage offering excellent storage or workshop potential.

Perfectly positioned near Cowes' shops, cafés, recreation spaces, and high speed links to Southampton, this is an exceptional opportunity to secure a stylish, spacious home in a highly desirable coastal location.
