Cathedral Road

An impressive seven-bedroom semi-detached house on Cathedral Road.

Stepping inside, you're immediately struck by the sense of scale and character. High ceilings, graceful bay windows and original architectural details. The five reception rooms offer endless versatility – from formal entertaining spaces to cosy family lounges – each filled with natural light and charm.

Upstairs, seven well-proportioned bedrooms ensure there's ample room for everyone, complemented by three stylish bathrooms designed with both practicality and comfort in mind. Whether hosting guests or enjoying peaceful family evenings, every corner of this home feels both welcoming and refined.

Perfectly positioned on Cathedral Road, just moments from the boutiques, cafés and restaurants of Pontcanna, and within easy reach of the city centre and nearby parks. Excellent transport links, reputable schools and a strong sense of community further enhance its appeal.

A property of this calibre, combining generous proportions, period character and such a sought-after location, rarely comes to market. This truly is a home to be lived in and loved – a timeless residence on one of Cardiff's finest roads.
