Bradley James welcomes you to Cross Street in the charming town of Spalding. This impressive detached house offers a remarkable blend of space, style, and versatility. With four reception rooms and five well-appointed bedrooms, this property is perfect for families seeking both comfort and functionality. There is an annex with this property.

The exterior of the home is stunning, presenting an inviting aesthetic that sets the tone for what lies within. Inside, you will find a spacious layout that includes three modern bathrooms, with the master bedroom featuring a rare en-suite, adding a touch of luxury to this older-style property. The kitchen is well-equipped, complemented by a utility room and a pantry, making it ideal for those who enjoy cooking and entertaining.

One of the standout features of this property is the one-bedroom annex, complete with its own kitchen, lounge, utility room, conservatory and shower room. This space is perfect for guests, a home office, or even a teenager's retreat. Additionally, there is a detached outbuilding in the garden that offers further potential for conversion into a studio or workspace or another annex.

The property boasts two staircases, providing easy access to all areas. There is a vast amount of off-road parking, including secure parking behind double gates leading to a garage. The low-maintenance rear garden has been beautifully landscaped, offering a serene outdoor space to relax and unwind.

Conveniently located within walking distance to the grammar boys' school and just a five-minute stroll or two-minute drive to the town centre, this home is ideally situated near the train station, restaurants, and supermarkets.

The house and annex are rated separately. The house was and remains rated as residential E- the childcare business was classed "childcare on domestic premises". The annex is rated separately, currently classed as "Childminding Centre" although SHDC has been advised that the annex is storage.
