📊 EPC Rating D

A delightful end-of-terrace home enjoying an enviable position in the hamlet of Coombe, with attractive brick-faced elevations beneath a tiled roof. This well-presented property offers spacious and versatile accommodation, complemented by a detached home office in the front garden with power connected, ideal for home working, hobbies or a studio.

The accommodation begins with an entrance hall providing access to the principal reception rooms and stairs to the first floor. The welcoming sitting room is positioned to the front and features a charming log-burning stove. To the rear, the generous kitchen/dining room is fitted with a comprehensive range of units complemented by oak work surfaces, a Belfast-style sink, integrated dishwasher and fridge, cooker hood and ample space for dining. French doors open into the conservatory, which benefits from a recently installed Equinox insulated tiled roof, creating a comfortable year-round living space with further French doors leading to the garden.

A separate utility room provides additional storage, work surfaces, sink unit and space for laundry appliances and a fridge freezer, while a cloakroom completes the ground floor.

Upstairs, the landing gives access to three bedrooms and the family bathroom. The two principal bedrooms are generous doubles positioned at the front of the property, with one featuring an ornamental fireplace and the other benefitting from an airing cupboard and access to the boarded and insulated loft via a loft ladder. The third bedroom overlooks the rear garden and surrounding countryside, making it equally suitable as a nursery or study. The bathroom is fitted with a corner bath with shower over, concealed cistern WC, wash hand basin and heated towel rail.

Outside, the property offers ample off-road parking, an enclosed front garden with a detached home office with power, and a tiered rear garden with a patio, lawn, vegetable beds, greenhouse, sheds and attractive countryside views.

Location

Coombe is a quintessential English village nestled along the banks of the River Avon in Wiltshire. Located within the beautiful landscape of the Pewsey Vale, Coombe is part of a chain of settlements known collectively as "the Nine Enfords," which includes Enford, East Chisenbury, and West Chisenbury.

Nearby Enford exudes traditional rural charm, characterized by its historic thatched cottages, winding lanes, and lush green meadows. Enford's heritage is rooted in its ancient origins, with a history dating back to the Domesday Book. The parish church of All Saints, a stunning 12th-century building, stands at the heart of the village and is a testament to Enford's long-standing community spirit.

Enford offers a tranquil lifestyle with a close-knit community atmosphere. Local amenities include a village hall that hosts various events and activities, and a friendly village pub, The Swan, which serves as a hub for social gatherings. The surrounding countryside provides ample opportunities for outdoor pursuits such as walking, fishing, and birdwatching, with numerous public footpaths and bridleways weaving through the picturesque landscape.

The village's location offers easy access to the larger market towns of Pewsey and Marlborough, providing additional amenities, schools, and transport links, including rail services to London Paddington. Enford's proximity to Salisbury Plain also means it is steeped in natural beauty and military history, offering fascinating exploration opportunities.

With its serene setting, rich history, and welcoming community, Enford is a delightful village that offers an idyllic rural lifestyle while remaining connected to the conveniences of nearby towns and cities.
