Description

Star Lane is a quiet lane situated in the picturesque and popular Cotswold village of Avening conveniently located a short distance from the market towns of Minchinhampton, Nailsworth and Tetbury.

This deceptively spacious property sits on its generous plot of just over a third of an acre with a detached double garage and a superb self-contained annexe above, offering an abundance of accommodation with well-established gardens and a wonderful southerly view.

Beautifully presented throughout, this Cotswold stone cottage offers an enviable combination of character, versatility and practicality thoughtfully arranged to provide well-balanced rooms ideally suited to modern family life, whilst retaining a warm and welcoming atmosphere throughout.

The property is approached via a generous driveway providing parking for several vehicles before arriving at the welcoming entrance porch, which opens into a cosy family room. From here, the open plan kitchen and dining room are generously proportioned and perfectly suited to both formal entertaining and relaxed family dining forming the heart of the home. The adjacent sitting room flows effortlessly from here creating an excellent sense of space and connectivity. Positioned to the rear of the house, this beautifully light-filled room provides a wonderful place to relax. Double doors allow direct access to the garden creating a seamless connection between the indoor and outdoor living spaces.

The first-floor accommodation continues to impress, offering three well-proportioned double bedrooms, each enjoying pleasant views over either the gardens or surrounding countryside. The principal bedroom benefits from an en-suite shower room, creating a comfortable and peaceful retreat. The remaining bedrooms are served by a well-appointed family bathroom.

One of the property's most attractive and versatile features is the detached double garage with a self-contained annexe positioned above. Beautifully arranged as an independent living space, the annexe comprises an open-plan kitchen, sitting and sleeping area together with a modern shower room. This flexible accommodation lends itself perfectly to a variety of uses, or as ancillary accommodation with the potential to generate additional income, subject to any necessary planning permissions and consents.

Externally, the gardens represent one of the property's most outstanding attributes. Lovingly cultivated over many years, they have previously been opened to the public as part of the prestigious National Garden Scheme. Beautifully established and thoughtfully landscaped, the gardens offer a rich tapestry of mature trees, shrubs, flowering borders and seasonal planting. Lawns provide generous areas for recreation and entertaining, whilst carefully positioned seating areas invite quiet enjoyment of the peaceful surroundings. An attractive summer house provides an idyllic focal point within the garden and a delightful space to relax.

Location

Avening is a historic Cotswold village in a pretty valley between the market towns of Tetbury and Minchinhampton, in the south-west of the Cotswolds.

The village has a well regarded pub (The Bell), with an excellent Indian Restaurant and takeaway attached, a popular primary school, a Norman church and a great community spirit. There are several special walks in the vicinity, opportunities to keep a horse locally at livery and the adjacent lanes are very popular with cyclists.

Nearby Nailsworth is a thriving country town with an excellent range of independent retailers and a burgeoning culinary reputation, while Tetbury and Minchinhampton are both steeped in history.

London is normally under 2 hours by road with regular train services from Kemble Station scheduled from 75 minutes into London Paddington. Regency Cheltenham or Georgian Bath are almost equi-distant, Minchinhampton has three challenging golf courses and there are the Gatcombe Horse Trials, close by.
