About the property

Set on the quiet and well-regarded Dorset Close in Newport, this two-bedroom detached bungalow offers a rare chance to purchase a home built and cherished by the same family since its construction. The area provides a convenient lifestyle, with local shops, schools and everyday amenities close at hand, as well as excellent transport links offering easy access across Newport and beyond.

Inside, the property features a sizeable, bright lounge that enjoys plenty of natural light, creating an inviting space to relax. The kitchen flows seamlessly into the dining room at the rear of the home, forming a practical and sociable layout ideal for both daily living and entertaining. Two versatile bedrooms provide comfortable accommodation, whether for sleeping, working or hobbies, and a well-kept family bathroom completes the interior. Externally, the bungalow offers a single garage and a gated driveway capable of accommodating multiple vehicles. The front and rear gardens have been lovingly maintained, providing attractive outdoor areas with wrap-around access, adding to the property's practicality. A standout feature is the large attic space, presenting excellent potential for future development, subject to the necessary permissions.

This much-loved bungalow is a fantastic opportunity for anyone seeking a well-located, well-cared-for home with space to make their own.
