THE PROPERTY

High Street House is a charming and substantial character house together with a large separate studio/outbuilding, in the village of Broadwindsor. It was formerly a malthouse dating back to the 19th century and understood to have been converted in circa 1985, having attractive natural stone elevations. The property is listed grade 2, of architectural or historic importance.

The property offers extensive and versatile accommodation, together with a whole number of character style features including exposed beams, natural stone fireplace with wood burner, pine doors and vaulted beamed ceilings to the first floor.

Under the current ownership since 2004, the property has been well cared for and subject to a whole number of improvements over the years. The excellent features include oil-fired central heating, traditional timber windows (part secondary double glazing), well equipped modern kitchen with extensive units, worktops with breakfast bar, electric double oven, induction hob and oil-fired Rayburn cooker range (also supplying the central heating and hot water), plus a modern bathroom /shower room with corner bath and separate shower.

Further big features of the property is a substantial two-storey studio outbuilding (formerly the garage and easily reconverted if required), suitable for a whole range of uses ie studio, working from home or possibly conversion into a small annexe, extensive rear parking and a good sized, sunny, west-facing garden.

The accommodation extends to:

Ground floor - Entrance lobby, reception hall, cloakroom, living room, study, dining room, kitchen/breakfast room, utility with laundry store.

First floor - Landing, principal bedroom with shower cubicle, three further main bedrooms, study/5th bedroom, bathroom/shower room.

OUTSIDE

Good sized and sunny west-facing rear garden which is attractively laid out, comprising an adjoining paved terrace with stone walls, steps up to a large lawned garden plus timber decking, ornamental pond, a whole variety of shrubs and mature apple tree.

To the rear of the garden is a good sized parking area for four plus cars and a detached two-storey studio outbuilding. Adjoining the front of the property there is also an additional parking space for one car.

SITUATION

High Street House is pleasantly located within the attractive village of Broadwindsor and close to all amenities. Broadwindsor rates highly amongst the many appealing villages close to Beaminster and within the Dorset Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty (AONB). Broadwindsor has much to offer all residents of all ages with an active and friendly community and amenities include a well renowned craft centre, village shop, pub, church, village hall and primary school as well as a broad range of clubs and societies to suit many interests. Charming Beaminster, with its characterful square and comprehensive range of independent shops, restaurants and pubs, is just two minutes' drive away and the popular market town of Bridport and the beautiful Jurassic Coast is also easily accessible. The town of Crewkerne is also very nearby with a mainline station to London Waterloo.
