Property Introduction

Situated at the entrance to this development and enjoying a tree lined open space to the front, this semi-detached family size home has recently been updated by our vendors.

One will find three bedrooms on the first floor, the lounge has a gas coal effect fire, there is a dining area and a remodelled kitchen. The shower room has been refitted in a contemporary style, there is gas central heating and uPVC double glazing. To the outside there is a generous brick paved parking space to the front suitable for up to three cars, whilst the rear garden is enclosed and benefits from an extensive patio ideal for outside entertaining and an artificial lawn to reduce maintenance. There is also a garage that has been subdivided for storage.

In summary, a well presented family home which requires a closer inspection, why not view our interactive virtual tour prior to arranging a viewing!

Location

The property is situated at the entrance to this development and within a short walk from a convenience store in Park Road and Rosemellin Primary School. The town has an eclectic mix of both local and national shopping outlets, there is a mainline railway station which connects to London Paddington and the north of England and the A30 trunk road can be accessed within three quarters of a mile.

Truro, the county town of Cornwall, is within twelve miles and is noted for its shopping and is also home to the Hall for Cornwall. The university town of Falmouth on the south coast is within a similar distance and the north coast village of Portreath, which is noted for its sandy beach and active harbour, will be found within six miles.
