A charming two-bedroom detached cottage is situated in a sought-after village location, just a short distance from the beautiful coastline. The property has been newly refurbished throughout, offering a blend of traditional character and modern convenience. The heart of the home is a welcoming lounge diner, featuring an open fire for cosy evenings, while the brand new fitted kitchen.

The outside space is equally impressive, with enclosed gardens mainly laid to lawn, with established borders and a patio with steps leading to the private driveway provides ample off-road parking and detached garage. The property's position within the village ensures a peaceful setting, while still being within easy reach of local facilities and scenic coastal walks.
