Bathrooms: 1

Receptions: 2

This well-presented three-bedroom semi-detached house on the edge of Tewkesbury offers spacious living, modern features, a private garden, and excellent access to local amenities, schools, and transport links—making it an ideal home for families or first-time buyers.

This three-bedroom semi-detached house is for sale on the edge of Tewkesbury, offering a smart and refreshed interior and a selection of practical features. The property is well-suited to first-time buyers and families, with spacious accommodation throughout.

The ground floor is arranged with an open-plan kitchen and dining area. The kitchen is fitted with wood countertops and benefits from natural light, creating a versatile space for dining and daily meals. A utility area provides additional convenience. At the front of the house, there is a living room with an electric fireplace, serving as a comfortable living area.

The property includes a conservatory, offering additional living or relaxation space, and access to a private garden, ideal for outdoor activities. Off-street parking is available, and a partial garage (store) provides extra storage solutions.

Upstairs, there are two double and one single bedrooms, including a master bedroom. The bathroom has been refitted to a modern standard.

The property has an EPC rating of C and falls within council tax band C.

The location provides a strong mix of local amenities and transport links. Tewkesbury town centre, with its independent shops, cafés, and supermarkets, is easily accessible for daily conveniences. Families will benefit from the proximity to respected local schools.

For those who enjoy the outdoors, the area is known for its green spaces, walking and cycling routes, and access to riverside and countryside areas.
