EXTERNALLY

6 Church Street enjoys a small but pretty rear courtyard garden. Mostly walled and easily maintained, there are well stocked flower borders together with a couple of sitting areas - perfect for outdoor dining. The garden in front of the house is owned by number 5, with a right of way for number 6 to the road. Parking is 'on street'.

LOCATION

The property stands behind a cobbled pavement in this very desirable road in the middle of Bathford. It is within easy walking distance of the various amenities in the village (including a community shop/cafe, hair salon, pub, parish rooms, village club, frequent bus service, an excellent primary school, children's playground, allotments, rugby and cricket clubs and a church). Wonderful walks are very close to hand - in the nearby open countryside, along the river, or up in the woodland at Brown's Folly, yet the city centre is just 3½ miles away.
