DESCRIPTION

A pretty and characterful semi detached cottage property retaining many original features and much period charm. Originally constructed by the Sudbury Estate in the mid 19th Century as one of a pair of Estate workers cottages the property is Listed Grade II as being of historical or architectural interest.

Understood to have been designed, along with a number of other Sudbury properties by the noted Victorian architect George Devey (or by the Estate Clerk of Works in imitation of his style) the property displays many characteristics of the Estate's vernacular style and will now lend itself to careful and considered refurbishment and updating to provide an enviable rural home.

Briefly comprising entrance hall, sitting room, breakfast kitchen, pantry and original wash house on the ground floor with two bedrooms and bathroom upstairs. There are generous gardens front, side and rear.

OUTSIDE

The property is well placed for access to main employment centres via the A50 and A515 and early viewing is enthusiastically encouraged.
