

Richmond Road, TW1

£595,000

Offering over 950 sq ft of beautifully refurbished living space, this exceptionally versatile three-bedroom apartment on Richmond Road includes a fourth room ideal for a home office, guest room or nursery.

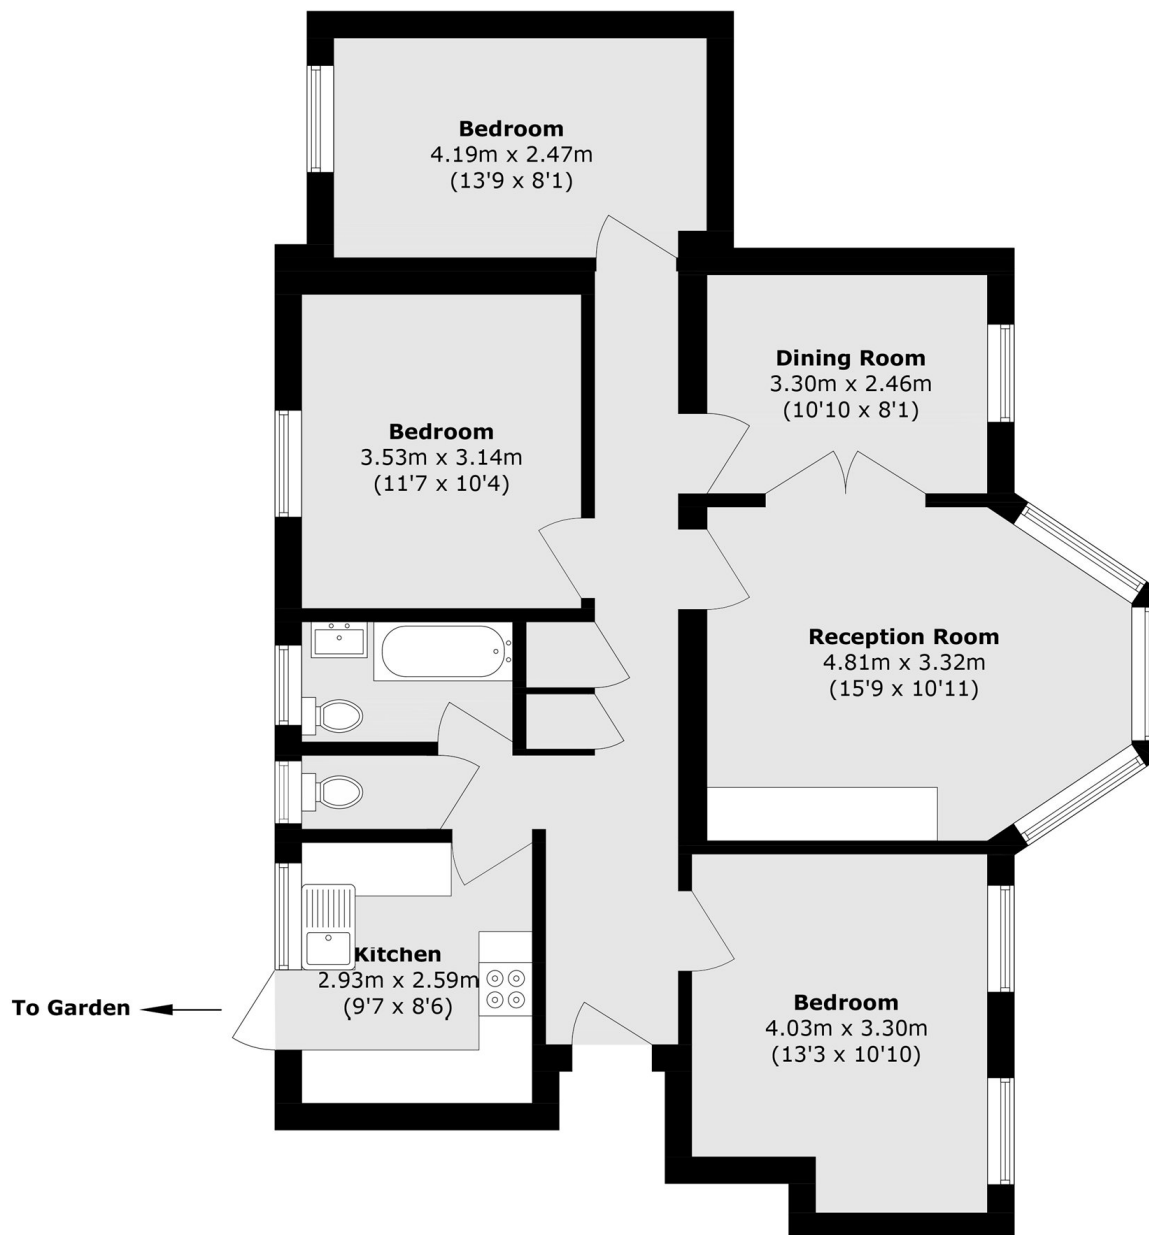

The apartment has been extensively refurbished throughout, including a full electrical rewire and replastering, giving buyers complete peace of mind. The accommodation comprises a wide entrance hallway, a generous reception room, and a contemporary fitted kitchen with underfloor heating and integrated appliances, including two fridges. There are three bedrooms plus an additional room, a family bathroom and a separate WC. The interiors combine character with contemporary design, featuring elegant wall panelling, statement lighting and bespoke storage throughout.

Lebanon Court is an attractive 1930s mansion block ideally located between Twickenham, St Margarets and Richmond. Marble Hill Park and the River Thames are both nearby, while Twickenham station is within easy reach, providing fast and frequent trains to London Waterloo in around 20 minutes. The area is also well known for its excellent schools, including Orleans Park School, rated Outstanding by Ofsted, as well as an excellent selection of local primary schools.
