

Lower Denbigh Road, St. Asaph LL17 0EH

£69,950

A versatile plot of approximately 500 m² set just off the A55, laid to firm gravel and framed by mature foliage and scattered evergreens that offer year-round colour and natural screening. The site includes an old telephone repeater station and two temporary structures, adding character and practical storage. Pre-planning advice has been obtained indicating potential for a 2–3 bedroom bungalow, subject to planning permission. Shared vehicular access from the road in front, alongside the neighbouring bungalow, keeps entry straightforward while the setting remains tucked back from through traffic. With low-maintenance ground covering, established greenery and existing structures, the plot presents an appealing canvas for landscaped parking, storage or future development potential, subject to the necessary consents.

- Gravelled plot just off the A55
- Old telephone repeater station on site
- Shared road access with neighbouring bungalow
- Mature foliage and evergreens for privacy
- Two temporary structures for storage
- Scope for future use/development (STP)
