About this property

Set within approximately 4.5 acres of predominantly woodland in the unspoilt rural hamlet of Bettws, this unique four-bedroom detached home enjoys an idyllic setting beneath the slopes of Bryn Arw, offering exceptional privacy whilst being just ten minutes from the thriving market town of Abergavenny.

With the core of the property dating back to Victorian times as workers cottages, with later extensions, the property extends to approximately 2,020 sq.ft. and has been thoughtfully enhanced by the current owners.

The accommodation is both versatile and welcoming. At its heart is a handcrafted kitchen, installed in 2020, complete with a wood-burning stove and large adjoining utility/boot room. A cosy snug provides an informal family space, while there is also a generous dining room open to a spacious sitting room, featuring a large contemporary wood burner. A separate reception room offers excellent flexibility as a home office, playroom or additional sitting room. Upstairs, there is an impressive principal bedroom suite with en-suite shower room and seating area, complemented by three further double bedrooms and a family bathroom. Several of the bedrooms have been recently replastered and redecorated. The home has been significantly upgraded with a recently installed air source heat pump, individually controlled Tado smart heating throughout, and a private spring-fed water supply with UV filtration.

The grounds are a particular highlight, comprising mature woodland, lawned gardens and productive vegetable plots with irrigation. From the front of the property the ground falls away to meet a stream which forms the southern boundary. A timber cabin sits on the hillside, enjoying far-reaching views towards the Sugar Loaf, while a substantial detached garage and games room, built in 2021 and plumbed for drainage, offers excellent potential for a variety of future uses, subject to the necessary consents. A lightly used public footpath runs through the grounds.

Bettws is a wonderfully preserved rural community with an excellent village pub within walking distance, providing a rare combination of peaceful country living, a strong local community and easy access to Abergavenny's shops, restaurants and amenities.

Offering space, character and an exceptional natural setting, this is a rare opportunity to acquire a distinctive country home in one of Monmouthshire's most picturesque locations.
