Location

Ideally situated within the small and unspoilt village of Ebbesbourne Wake, at the western end of the Chalke Valley within the Cranborne Chase National Landscape and Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty. The village has a Church, St John the Baptist, that dates back to the 13th Century, a well renowned family run public house (The Horseshoe Inn), an active village hall and thriving village community. Nearby, the village of Broad Chalke offers a comprehensive range of village amenities including a highly regarded primary school, post office and stores, church and doctors' surgery and the annual internationally renowned Chalke Valley History Festival. More extensive amenities can be found approximately 12 miles away at the beautiful Cathedral City of Salisbury, the iconic North Dorset Saxon hill top town of Shaftesbury is 10 miles and Tisbury, with its eclectic shops, mini-supermarket, deli and butcher, is a convenient 6 miles.

Overview

Providing over 2000sqft of accommodation, Wavertree Cottage offers an exciting opportunity to modernise and create a quite superb family home situated within the highly desirable village of Ebbesbourne Wake.

Inside the Home

Formally two dwellings, the property now presents an abundance of versatile living and bedroom quarters to include four reception rooms, six bedrooms and three bathrooms making a fantastic opportunity to remodel a home to suit a variety of homeowners needs.

Outside Space

Front: A gated driveway is located to the western edge of the building whilst a further driveway is positioned to the eastern side allowing for ample off-road parking options. In addition, there are several useful outbuildings including a workshop with power and light.

Rear: Predominantly laid to lawn whilst backing onto open countryside, the rear gardens are a good size and can be considered blank canvas to appeal to a wide range of homeowners.
