A lovely three bedroom Edwardian family home, situated moments from the station and highly sought after schools, brought to the market without any onward chain.

This already spacious family home offers well proportioned reception rooms and bedrooms, but also gives much potential and scope for further extensions (subject to planning consents) making this a family home that can be grown into!

Accommodation comprises a welcoming hallway, two adjoining reception rooms, a kitchen breakfast room and a downstairs shower room and WC. Upstairs there are three bedrooms, a family bathroom and a landing with steps leading up to the spacious loft room. Outside, there are gardens to the front and back, with the rear being over 45ft in length, has rear access and is south facing - perfect for those long summers evenings.

Extremely well located, this property is situated for many sought after schools including Little Ealing Primary School and Ealing Fields. It is also moments from Northfields Tube Station (Piccadilly Line), whilst the boutique shops on Northfield Avenue and beautiful Lammas Park are also close by.
