Tucked away in the popular South Hams village of Brixton, this beautifully presented four-bedroom detached home offers flexible family accommodation, an amazing south-facing garden and incredible far-reaching countryside views.

The extended kitchen, dining and family room is the real heart of the home, providing a fantastic space for cooking, relaxing and entertaining. There is also a comfortable separate lounge and a handy utility room positioned beside the kitchen.

A good-sized ground-floor bedroom offers plenty of flexibility. A useful downstairs WC is also provided. Upstairs are three further well-proportioned bedrooms and the main family bathroom.

Outside, the generous south-facing garden is a real standout feature. A single garage and driveway provide off-road parking.
