

Goldcrest Mews, W5

£1,500,000

Tucked away within a private gated development and backing onto Montpelier Park, this impressive end of terrace home offers space, privacy and a fantastic setting. With five bedrooms, allocated parking and no onward chain, it's ready for its next owners to move straight in and make it their own.

The location is ideal for families and commuters alike. Excellent local schools, including Ofsted Outstanding options, are close by, while Ealing's Elizabeth Line offers fast connections into Central London. With beautiful parkland on your doorstep, it's easy to see why this is such a sought-after place to call home.

Goldcrest Mews, W5

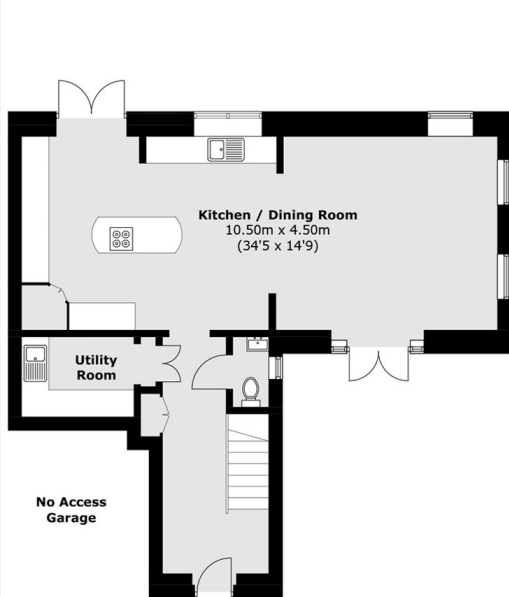

The heart of the home is the stunning open plan kitchen and dining room, stretching over 34 feet in length and perfect for everyday family life or entertaining. A separate utility room keeps things practical, while the first-floor reception room opens onto balcony and a fantastic roof terrace, creating a lovely spot to relax with views over the park.

The five bedrooms are spread across the upper floors, giving everyone their own space. The principal bedroom is particularly generous, while the remaining rooms are ideal for children, guests, working from home or whatever suits your lifestyle as it evolves.

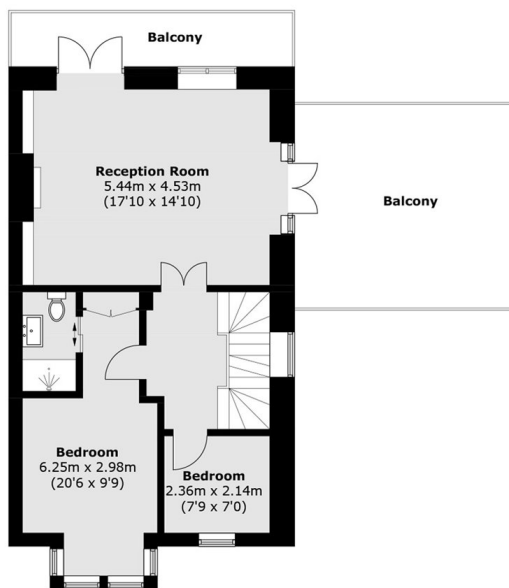

Backing directly onto Montpelier Park, the outside space is a real highlight. The terrace provide the perfect place for a morning coffee or an evening drink, while the end-of-terrace position offers an extra sense of privacy. Allocated parking within the gated development completes the picture.
