THE PROPERTY

We understand the original cottage dates back to the 18th Century, and has been structurally extended over many years to afford a delightful detached home, with internal inspection highly recommended to be fully appreciated. The property offers a high degree of internal flexibility, where the dining room could be utilised as a further double bedroom, together with a detached home office/studio to the front. The accommodation comprises; enclosed entrance porch, entrance hall, two reception rooms, dining kitchen, inner lobby, cloaks/WC, utility room, main bedroom with ensuite shower room, a further two bedrooms, nursery/study/bedroom, bathroom, ample parking to the front, detached home office/studio, integral single garage, and rear garden.

LOCATION

The property enjoys a delightful location, adjoining and enjoying views over fields to the rear, on the fringe of the sought-after village of Kirk Langley, which is well served by highly regarded schooling to include Kirk Langley primary school, and Ecclesbourne secondary school. Kirk Langley is within minutes driving distance of Mickleover for a further range of amenities. The highly regarded local public house and restaurant, The Bluebell, is also easily accessible. The A52 is just a short drive away, which provides access to a local bus service between Derby and Ashbourne, together with a direct link to the A38 for commuting throughout the region.

DIRECTIONS

When leaving Derby city centre by vehicle, proceed west along the A52 Ashbourne Road, and after passing through Mackworth Village turn left into Brun Lane, and at the end of Brun Lane at T-junction turn right onto Moor Lane, the B5020, and after passing the junction on the lefthand side with Long Lane, turn right into Poyser Lane to find the property on the lefthand side.
