

BEITH PLACE, GEORGE STREET CAMPBELTOWN

This substantial building is situated on the corner of George Street into High Street just before the junction leading to Low and High Askomil. The property has splendid elevated views out across the loch and is within comfortable walking distance of the town centre. The garden grounds are beautifully maintained and include planning permission for a detached bungalow.

The building comprises TWO GROUND FLOOR FLATS and TWO FIRST FLOOR MAISONNETTES each having well proportioned rooms with high ceilings, ornate cornice work and attractive fireplaces. Each flat is double glazed and will require to be modernised and re decorated throughout, hence the very reasonable asking price.

The introduction of Beith Place brings to the market a fantastic opportunity to acquire a well proportioned attractive property, full of character to design and decorate into your own perfect home.
