Note:

These particulars are issued for guidance purposes only. They are prepared and issued in good faith and are intended to give a fair summary of the property. Any description or information given should not be relied upon as a statement or representation of fact. Photographs show only certain parts of the property at the time they were taken. Any areas, measurements or distances given are only approximate. Prospective applicants must satisfy themselves by inspection as to these and other relevant details. The National Trust reserves the right to not have to accept any offer received for this property.

National Trust Contract Holders

As a Contract Holder of the National Trust, you'll receive a free 'tenant pass' throughout the duration of your Occupation Contract. This means that you, your children (under 18) and one other adult can visit the places we care for, for free. You'll also receive a National Trust Handbook to help you plan your days out, a copy of the National Trust Magazine and a free parking permit for when you visit us.

It's important to know that the income we make from the places we let plays an essential role in funding our conservation work. It protects nature, beauty and history for generations to come.

We're keen to build long-lasting landlord-tenant relationships that bring stability and longevity to your plans and ours. We know that tenants have high expectations of their National Trust rental property, but we also expect them to look after the property as if we were looking after it. That's because being a National Trust tenant means looking after a piece of history. It means being a custodian of a building. And it means helping to protect it for the next generation.

Renting Homes (Fees etc.) (Wales) Act 2019 - Permitted Payments Schedule

Permitted Payment	Notes
The Rent	The agreed rent for the property is a permitted payment within the Act and is payable as per the terms of the Contract.
Security Deposit and Holding Deposit	Whilst the receipt of a deposit is a permitted payment under the Renting Homes (Fees etc.) (Wales) Act 2019, for organisational reasons, we do not currently take security or holding deposits for our residential lettings.
Default Payments	A payment to be made in the event of a default by the Contract Holder is a permitted payment, where the description of default is specified by regulations and will be subject to restrictions that apply to any prescribed limits, for example;- <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Interest on late payment of Rent</li> <li>• Costs relating to changing, adding to or removing locks that give access to the dwelling (as a result of a breach of the Occupation Contract)</li> <li>• Replacing a key or security device that gives access to the dwelling (as a result of a breach of the Occupation Contract)</li> </ul>
Council Tax	A payment that a Contract Holder is required to make to a billing authority in respect of council tax is a permitted payment. Although these situations are uncommon, we may occasionally need to pay these and recharge these costs to Contract Holder/s where appropriate.
Utilities (Electricity, Gas and Other Fuels, Water or Sewage)	Contract Holder/s will be responsible for the payment of Utilities, the costs of utilities is a permitted payment. Where forming part of the letting and as set out in the Occupation Contract, we may recharge a utility supply to a residential property, including the proportional element of any standing charges and VAT if appropriate. Where properties are not connected to mains drainage, we may recharge the proportional costs of emptying the septic tank to the Contract Holder/s. Where a property is not on mains water and is fed by a private water supply which we maintain, we may recharge the proportionate costs of the maintenance and servicing of the filtration equipment which supplies water to the property.
Television Licence	Telecoms Contract Holder/s will be responsible for the payment of their telephone line installation
