Occupying a central position in the popular Highland town of Grantown on Spey, this attractive two-bedroom mid-terrace cottage combines traditional stone and slate construction with thoughtfully refurbished accommodation arranged over two floors. Finished to a high standard throughout, the property offers comfortable, flexible living within easy walking distance of the town's shops, cafés and amenities. The entrance hall provides access to the ground-floor accommodation, beginning with a generous open-plan living, dining and kitchen area, which forms the heart of the home. The sitting and dining space enjoys natural light from a large front-facing window, while the adjoining kitchen is fitted with an extensive range of quality units, generous worktops and integrated appliances, creating a practical arrangement for everyday living and entertaining. A well-proportioned separate sitting room offers ample space for use as a multi purpose room e.g. a home office or third bedroom, while a separate WC completes the ground floor. Stairs rise to the first-floor landing, which serves two further bedrooms and a contemporary shower room. The principal bedroom is particularly spacious, with two rear-facing windows and an adjoining walk-in wardrobe providing useful storage. Bedroom two offers comfortable additional accommodation, while the shower room is fitted with a generous glazed enclosure, WC and wash hand basin. Outside, the property benefits from a sheltered courtyard garden, providing a private space for outdoor seating, container planting and dining during warmer weather. Grantown on Spey offers an appealing balance of town convenience and Highland living, with Anagach Woods, the River Spey and an extensive network of walking and cycling routes close by.
