Offered to the market with the advantage of no onward chain, this well-presented period semi-detached home combines classic Victorian character with modern touches and a superb 130ft (approx. 40m) level rear garden. Ideally positioned in the heart of Tilehurst Village, the property is within easy walking distance of a wide range of local amenities, reputable schools, and several frequent bus services. Tilehurst train station is approximately 1.5 miles away, while Reading town centre and Junction 12 of the M4 are both within 4 miles.

A dropped kerb leads to a block-paved frontage providing off-road parking for one vehicle, with gated side access to the rear garden. The entrance hall, featuring an attractive original moulded arch, opens to a bright dual-aspect open-plan living/dining room, beautifully lit by large windows including a bay with plantation shutters. The space retains a period cast iron fireplace and engineered wood flooring, which continues through to the hallway. The modern kitchen is fitted with a range of contemporary units and includes an integrated oven, hob, extractor, and dishwasher. An adjoining utility area offers additional storage and leads to a ground-floor cloakroom.

Upstairs, there are two bedrooms, with the principal room featuring another original fireplace. These are served by a generous four-piece family bathroom, complete with a walk-in shower and vanity storage beneath the basin. Outside, the impressive rear garden is a particular highlight — featuring a full-width patio, an extensive lawn with mature shrub borders, and a garden shed, all enclosed by fencing and hedging to provide excellent privacy.

There is scope for future extension to the side, rear, or into the loft (subject to necessary consents), as demonstrated by several neighbouring homes.
