Jasmine Cottage, Forest Row

Situated within five hundred yards of the lively village centre of Forest Row, a two bedroomed bungalow with single garage, in need of modernisation and improvement.

The property comes on to the market for the first time in fifty years and is sold with no onward chain.

The accommodation comprises two bedrooms, a bathroom, lounge, and kitchen. Heating is gas fired and the windows are double glazed.

Outside there is a driveway providing off street parking and a raised border.

The rear garden is of good size, laid to lawn, and adjoins the Forest Way for cycling/walking and horse riding.

The bungalow stands on a good sized mature south facing plot adjoining the Forest Way on the rear boundary. The village centre in Forest Row provides a wide and varied range of local shops, specialist stores, cafes and restaurants whilst East Grinstead town centre approximately three miles can be reached via car, bus or walking/cycling the Forest Way, and provides more extensive shopping, leisure amenities and rail services to London (Victoria/London Bridge). Gatwick Airport/Station and the M23 motorway are within eighteen miles.
