Stratton

Stratton is a small village community located within a mile of Cirencester market place, the village benefits from a large selection of local amenities and facilities these include an Ofstead outstanding ranked primary school, two public houses, Cotswold hotel, modern convenience store and post office open 7 days a week. Cirencester is well situated for the commuter with both M4 & M5 Motorways in driving distance and a mainline rail link at the neighbouring village of Kemble a daily commuter service to London Paddington.

Nearby Cirencester

Cirencester is an historic Roman town which became an important centre for the wool trade in medieval times. Today it is a thriving market town. The property occupies a desirable situation. Shopping in Cirencester is highly regarded, off the main streets there are many interesting back lanes with specialist shops, particularly Black Jack Street. On the outskirts of the town are two supermarkets (Waitrose and Tesco) as well as a Hospital. A new Leisure Centre was opened in 2006 and one of the oldest open-air pools in the country is a short walk. A gate to the 2500 acre Cirencester Park, belonging to the Bathurst family and open during the day, is also a short walk off Cecily Hill. Many concerts are given in the Church and there are talented local choirs and amateur dramatic groups. Within about half an hour's drive are the towns of Cheltenham, Gloucester and Swindon. Bath, Oxford and Stratford are about an hour by car, with superb cultural and recreational facilities. Private and State schools in the area are excellent, such as Beaudesert, Deer Park, Kingshill, Prior Park, Rendcomb and Hatherop Castle.

Kemble airfield has facilities for small aircraft and Aston Down is a gliding centre. Cirencester has had a golf course for over 100 years and others are at Minchinhampton, Burford and Naunton. Superb horse racing takes place at Cheltenham, as well as at meetings at Newbury and Bath. Sailing is available on the lakes between Cirencester and Swindon.

Description

Entrance to the house is through a main hall way with down stairs cloak room to side and stairs to upper floors, door to ground floor living space. The ground floor has been extended with a large full width family room which leads directly to the rear garden and is accessed from all areas, a fantastic living space for the growing family. In recent years the present vendor has totally re-styled and fitted the Kitchen/Diner with an excellent range of contemporary storage with extensive work surfaces and fitted range cooker, a dual aspect light living space with ample room for large family table. The family lounge offers great space for a range of soft furnishings with access to all of the ground floor living space in this free flowing home. To the first and second floors there is a selection of five bedrooms and a modern contemporary family bathroom all presented in excellent condition with an additional cloak room to the upper floor. These levels benefit from far reaching views over to Cirencester town and the Parish Church and offer families a highly flexible and spacious living space ideal for the growing family.

The property is warmed throughout by an efficient gas fired central heating system which is complemented by double glazed windows and doors throughout and has benefited from recent re-decoration by the present vendors.
