ACCOMMODATION

The house offers versatile family living with spacious reception rooms and a large garden, while retaining original features including the namesake courtyard garden.

The main entrance leads through the older section into a welcoming ante room/dining room with fireplace and large south-facing windows. A triple aspect kitchen/breakfast room with Aga, Island with granite worktop, integrated appliances and wall units connects the old and newer parts. A hallway provides access to a utility room, guest WC, cellar and rear courtyard door. A bright corridor leads to a large triple aspect drawing room with wooden floors, French doors to both gardens and a fireplace with wood burner. Adjacent is a flexible sitting room/snug, plus a large family room (currently an artist's studio) opening to the rear garden.

FIRST FLOOR, GARDEN & LOCATION

Upstairs divides naturally between the two sections making it ideal for families or multi-generational living. The principal suite spans the width of the older part with southerly views, bathroom and dressing room. Four double bedrooms overlook the gardens or courtyard, with a family bathroom, shower room and storage. The elegant courtyard garden, rich with roses, anchors the home while formal gardens extend to the treeline with spring flowers and stocked beds. A substantial detached summer house serves as an artist's studio or versatile space. Electrically operated gates lead to the herringbone driveway and detached garage with power and lighting.

Transport links are excellent, with easy access to the M25 and the UK motorway network. Mainline stations include Shoreham and Swanley (London Victoria in 29 mins/London Bridge in 21 mins, Charing Cross in 31 mins).

The area offers excellent schooling, with primary schools in Farningham, Eynsford, Shoreham, and Otford. Prep schools nearby include The New Beacon (Sevenoaks), St. Michael's and Russell House (Otford) and Radnor House (Sundridge) as well as the renowned Independent Sevenoaks School and Tonbridge Boys school.
