Jasmine House is one of the oldest buildings located in the centre of the thriving town of Ashbourne. Previously known as Peter Cook's - and more recently Bennett's - this historical and characterful setting has been completely refurbished to create a hub of commercial outlets with residential accommodation on the upper floors. The original staircase has been renovated plus there is a lift to each floor including private entry to the Penthouse from a private entrance to the building.

Sympathetically developed, these seven apartments (covering the second, third and fourth floors of the building) have lots of character yet have all modern conveniences such as brand new kitchens with integrated appliances and quartz work surfaces* and bathrooms. Each apartment is very different to the others and most are quirky either with lay out or with beams throughout walls and ceilings. Allocated parking is also included – just a short walk away.

This second floor apartment has a small lobby before leading into the main living area. There is an L shaped lounge/dining/kitchen area with superb quality kitchen with integrated appliances including fridge/freezer, washer/dryer and oven, hob and extractor. A double bedroom leads off the kitchen area and there is a shower room by the lounge area. The floor above has a double bedroom with steps into a quirky bathroom which has a shower over the bathroom and is light and spacious. Fitted wardrobes into the eaves with storage.

Ashbourne is steeped in history and known as the gateway to the Peak District. Shopping is a pure pleasure thanks to its plethora of small, family-run businesses plus it was granted a charter for a market in 1257 and a market still takes place in the quaint cobbled town centre. It is a vibrant town with plenty of interesting shops to browse around selling fine antiques, designer fashion and speciality shops too. There are plenty of pitstops for you to then relax over morning coffee, lunch or afternoon tea in a selection of cafés, inns and tea rooms. There is the added benefit of two supermarkets within walking distance and the Memorial Gardens on the edge of the town, complete with stream and duck pond, provide the perfect spot to escape the hustle and bustle or enjoy a picnic.
