6 Queens Drive, Brading, Isle of Wight, PO36 0JB

Set in a quiet cul-de-sac on the outskirts of Brading, this two-bedroom detached bungalow presents an excellent opportunity for those seeking a tranquil setting with easy access to village amenities and the beautiful surrounding countryside and downland.

Queens Drive

Located in a quiet close on the outskirts of Brading, this two-bedroom detached bungalow offers an excellent opportunity for those seeking a peaceful setting with convenient access to village amenities and the stunning surrounding countryside and downland.

Accommodation

The accommodation comprises two small double bedrooms, a newly fitted wet room with WC and wash basin, and a spacious sitting/dining room positioned at the front of the property. The kitchen, accessible from the living area, provides a practical layout for everyday living. A useful UPVC enclosed porch offers additional storage and access.

Outside

Externally, the property benefits from a generous single garage and driveway parking. The rear garden is mainly laid to lawn and enclosed by timber fencing, providing a private and manageable outdoor space.

Having been in the same ownership since the late 1980s, the bungalow would now benefit from general upgrading and modernisation, allowing a new owner to put their own stamp on the property. Offered to the market chain free, this is an ideal opportunity for buyers looking for a project or a retirement home in a popular Isle of Wight location.

Brading

Brading is one of the oldest towns on the Isle of Wight and is steeped in history. Located on the eastern side of the Island, just a short drive from Ryde, the town was once a major port before the land was reclaimed in the 19th century. Today, Brading retains much of its original character, with beautiful period cottages and historic buildings lining the heart of the town.

Local attractions include the impressive Norman church of St Mary's and the nearby Brading Roman Villa, which offers fascinating insights into the area's Roman past. The surrounding countryside provides plenty of opportunities for walking, cycling, and exploring the Island's natural beauty.
