Property Description

Quilliam are delighted to present this inviting two double bedroom home, offering modern, comfortable living arranged over three bright and beautifully balanced floors. This is a fantastic opportunity for a purchaser to upgrade, refine, and truly make the space their own.

Spread across three levels, the flat features a generous open-plan reception/dining room and a spacious kitchen, perfect for both everyday living and entertaining. Two bright double bedrooms provide excellent natural light and built in storage, while a separate bathroom and WC add convenience and flexibility. Ample storage throughout ensures the home remains practical as well as inviting.

A private balcony offers a peaceful spot to enjoy morning coffee and fresh air, with Watermans Park just across the road and the scenic Thames Path moments away for riverside strolls.

Ideally positioned a short walk from Brentford High Street, the property enjoys easy access to a wide range of local amenities and excellent transport links. Brentford Station is within walking distance, providing direct connections into Central London, while numerous bus routes serve Chiswick, Ealing, and Isleworth. Permit parking is available through Hounslow Council.

A bright and generously sized home with exciting scope to add value and personalise, it's perfectly suited to first time buyers, investors, or those looking to enjoy more room to grow.
