GUIDE PRICE: £425,000 -£475,000

Situated along the ever-popular Bell Farm Avenue in Dagenham, this superb three bedroom terraced home brings together generous living space, family practicality and a rear view that's far more countryside than you'd expect.

Extended to the rear and cleverly arranged throughout, the property offers the kind of flexibility modern families are always searching for. An entrance porch and welcoming hallway lead through to a bright and comfortable reception room — ideal for movie nights, lazy Sundays and pretending you'll only watch one episode.

To the rear, the large kitchen/dining room provides the true hub of the home with plenty of room for family dinners, entertaining friends and those "quick chats" that somehow last two hours. The extended family room adds even more living space and could easily become a playroom, home office, second lounge or the peaceful escape every parent quietly dreams about.

Upstairs, three well-sized bedrooms offer comfortable accommodation for growing families, complemented by a family bathroom and separate WC designed to help avoid the morning queue negotiations.

Outside is where this home really begins to stand out. The wonderful size rear garden backs directly onto open fields, creating a surprisingly peaceful backdrop for summer BBQs, children playing or simply enjoying a coffee with no immediate rear neighbours staring back at you. There's also a useful storage room and plenty of parking facilities, making everyday life that little bit easier.

A fantastic family home offering space to grow, room to entertain and a rear outlook that feels a world away from the everyday rush.
