208 Dover House Road, London, SW15 5AH

Asking price £635,000

Nestled in the heart of the Dover House conservation this property presents an enticing opportunity for prospective homeowners seeking a two bedroom mid-terrace house with two bathrooms. This delightful mid-terrace house is a rare gem, boasting not only a prime location but also the added appeal of two bathrooms and significant potential for expansion into the loft and at the rear, subject to planning. The property is meticulously maintained and thoughtfully designed, making it an ideal choice for those seeking a home with contemporary features and future growth possibilities. The house is presented in impeccable condition, reflecting the care and attention invested in its upkeep. A testament to modern living, this residence offers a turnkey solution for those who desire a home that is both aesthetically pleasing and move-in ready. The living room is separate to the modern fully fitted kitchen and is a cozy haven adorned with a feature fireplace, and large window adding character to the space. The special character of the Dover House Conservation Area is derived from the carefully planned clusters of picturesque cottage-style homes and their front gardens with privet hedges set around green spaces with many mature trees. Conveniently located just moments from local buses, barnes station shops and amenities. Putney Heath and Richmond park are also close by. Council Tax band D
