THE PROPERTY

16 Norburton is an attractive and spacious detached bungalow located in an enviable position, close to the heart of Burton Bradstock and enjoying far-reaching views to the sea and the glorious surrounding countryside. It was traditionally built in circa 1965 and under the current long ownership since 1996 and over the years a whole number of improvements have been carried out, although the property now offers potential for refurbishment and also enlargement, which might include a loft conversion, subject to the usual planning consents.

The excellent features include gas-fired central heating with updated boiler, uPVC sealed unit windows, natural stone open fireplace, fitted kitchen with solid oak-fronted units, modern very recently updated shower room with large walk-in shower and a large uPVC conservatory/utility with plumbing for washing machine.

The spacious and well proportioned accommodation extends to entrance porch, reception hall with pull-down ladder to attic, cloakroom, living room, kitchen with larder, uPVC conservatory/utility, three bedrooms, shower room.

A further big selling feature of the property are the larger than average mature gardens and very useful basement store/workshop.

OUTSIDE

Good sized driveway leading to the attached garage.

The front garden is down to lawn together with flower and shrub beds. The main gardens extend to the rear and side, being attractively landscaped and arranged on various levels, comprising a paved terrace with low stone walls, summerhouse and steps down to a large lawned garden with a whole variety of shrubs and trees.

Great views are enjoyed over the village, taking in the church and to the sea beyond with also plenty of space and privacy to the rear.

SITUATION

The property is well located at the end of this Quiet and well established cul-de-sac. It is within easy reach of the village centre and open countryside. Burton Bradstock is considered to be one of the most attractive and sought after villages in West Dorset. It is a conservation village and the centre consists mainly of period stone and thatched cottages, for which the area is particularly well known. There are excellent amenities including a shop/garage, Post Office, library, public houses, church, village hall and popular primary school. There is an excellent beach, which forms part of the Jurassic World Heritage Site and the area, as a whole, is designated as one of outstanding natural beauty (AONB). Virtually on the doorstep there are public footpaths, giving easy access to open countryside, riverside walks, village centre and to the beach (some 15 minutes' walk).
