Laburnum Drive, Cherry Willingham, LN3 4AS
£259,950

Starkey&Brown is delighted to represent for sale this extended two double bedroom bungalow with potential for a third bedroom. The home currently occupies floor space of approximately 1,000 sq. ft, which provides two double bedrooms and three reception rooms. There is currently a lounge, dining room, and a craft room, with the craft room being converted from a garage approximately four years ago, and could be utilised as a third bedroom. There is a large family bathroom which currently includes a five-piece suite with a bathtub, a shower cubicle, and a bidet. Furthermore, there is a utility room with space and plumbing for white goods, which leads onto a kitchen measuring 13'6" x 7'4" with a range of base and eye-level units and a pull-out breakfast bar. The main bedroom measures 15'11" x 10'6" and comes with French doors leading onto a rear garden. The rear garden is generous in size and comes with a two-tier layout, having a paved and laid to lawn arrangement with two timber-built garden sheds, side access to the front of the property, which comes with driveway parking for a minimum of two vehicles. The home is well-maintained throughout, having been owned by the current owner for 25 years. Furthermore, the property comes with gas central heating, with the combination boiler fitted in 2018, serviced in 2025 and uPVC double-glazing throughout. The village of Cherry Willingham is well-regarded for its excellent array of amenities, which includes schooling at primary and secondary levels, a Co-op foodstore, a pharmacy, a GP surgery, and a regular bus service to and from Lincoln city centre, with Lincoln city centre being a short 10-minute drive away. For further details and viewing arrangement please contact Starkey&Brown. Council tax band: B. Freehold.
