Description

O'Malley Property are pleased to present to the market 6 Old College View, a modern two bedroom end terraced home located within a popular development in Sauchie.

Built just two years ago, this property is presented in excellent, move in condition and offers stylish, contemporary living.

Upon entering the property, you are welcomed directly into a bright and spacious lounge, providing a comfortable area for both relaxing and entertaining. The lounge also provides access to the upper level via a staircase, with useful under-stair storage. From here, you enter the kitchen, which is generously sized and well laid out, offering ample storage and workspace. There is also space for a dining table, making it ideal for everyday living. The kitchen further benefits from a convenient W/C and French doors which open directly out to the rear garden, allowing for plenty of natural light.

The upper level comprises two well proportioned bedrooms and a family bathroom. The master bedroom benefits from built-in storage, while bedroom two is also a good sized room, suitable for a variety of uses. The bathroom is fitted with a modern three piece suite comprising a bath, wash hand basin and W/C.

Externally, the property enjoys a well maintained, low maintenance rear garden, offering an ideal space for outdoor use. The garden also benefits from pleasant views towards the surrounding hills. To the front, the property has two designated parking spaces, providing convenient off-street parking. This fantastic home is perfect for first-time buyers, downsizers or those seeking a modern property in a desirable location.
