IF YOU LIVED HERE...

You'll step into the lengthy, high ceilinged hallway, where incidental space and fitted storage making your new home feel more like a house than an apartment. Your first two bedrooms, each a solid double, are on the left, softly carpeted and featuring floor to ceiling windows for a wealth of natural light. Your family bathroom is next, a sleek boutique affair in oversized smoky grey tilework, large vanity mirror and a shower over the tub.

Bedroom three, a gloriously bright double, completes the sleeping arrangement and features an en suite shower room, finished to the same boutique standard. Your open plan kitchen, diner and reception room comes in at a vast 400 square feet, with a neatly segmented kitchen, seamless in white, and hardwood floors stretching away to the balcony doors. Step out here for a timber decked, sheltered outdoor space, with views of the grounds.

Riverside walks are never far away, with the banks of the River Lea less than five minutes on foot from your new front door. Stroll for twenty minutes and you come to London Stadium and the Queen Elizabeth Olympic Park. Less than half a mile in the other direction and you come to Bromley by Bow tube station for the District and Hammersmith & City tube lines. The latter will get you directly to Liverpool Street in around ten minutes.

WHAT ELSE?

- East London's growing network of protected cycle paths starts just a couple of minutes away on Bow High Street, from here you have a seamless five minute ride straight to to Stratford for Westfield Shopping Centre and bustling nightlife.
- Your kitchen features a full suite of seamlessly integrated appliances.
- You're surrounded by nature here. As well as the River Lea and Olympic Park there's Victoria Park less than thirty minutes away, and a choice of other open greenery within easy reach. Great for joggers and strollers alike.
