Torena is a detached bungalow conveniently located at the heart of the pretty and desirable village of Whimble with excellent amenities that include a highly regarded Primary School, railway station connecting Exeter and London Waterloo along with two public houses and village shop. The nearby countryside offers excellent walking facilities and major roads are within easy reach providing swift access to the cathedral city of Exeter, M5 and the coast.

The property itself is well presented throughout and enjoys light and airy accommodation including an entrance lobby leading into the hallway which provides access to all rooms. The sitting room is a pleasant room with a fireplace providing a focal point. The spacious kitchen dining room provides ample space for a dining table and chairs. The kitchen itself has been fitted with a range of storage cupboards and drawers with complimenting work surfaces, an inset sink and attractively tiled surrounds. There are modern integral appliances including a dishwasher, electric oven with hob over and extractor fan above. There is also an additional space for a washing machine and an external door out to the side of the house providing access to the front and back gardens.

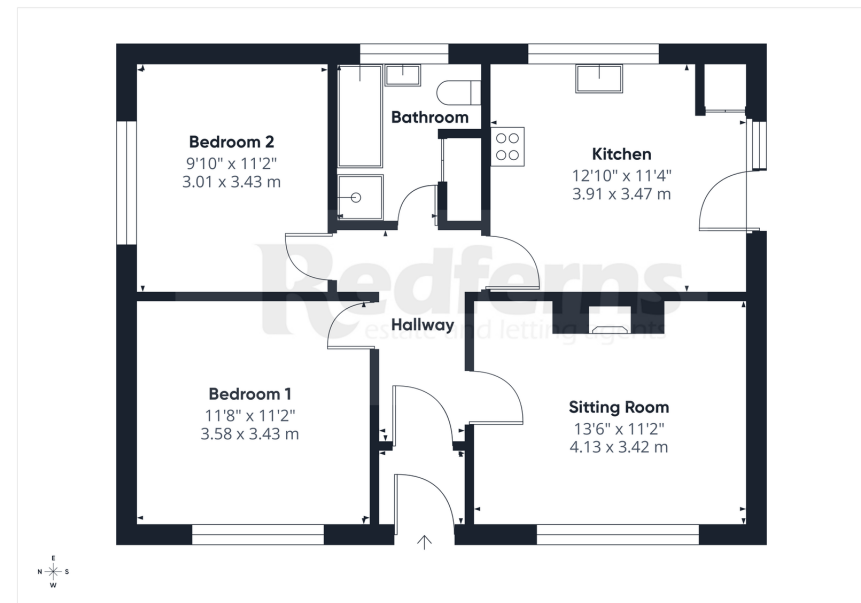

Both bedrooms are good sized double bedrooms leaving additional space for wardrobes, chest of drawers etc and the bathroom has been fitted with a modern white suite including a bath and a separate walk-in shower.

To the outside the property is approached by a gravelled lane which leads to the rear of the property and its driveway which provides off road parking in front of the garage. The front garden has been well stocked with a variety of plants and shrubs, there is also a parking bay at the front off Church Road and an adjacent pathway with steps leads to the front door. The rear garden enjoys an excellent degree of sunlight and privacy. The garden is predominantly laid to lawn with flower borders, mature shrubs and hedging.
